

Orange Shirt Day

Wednesday September 29

It's about honouring residential school survivors.

It's about remembering every child matters.

We remember the past to create a better future.

Wear orange to support reconciliation, anti-racism, and anti-bullying in schools.